Shtick: The Schwarzenegger Effect (12). No brain, no pain. Other folks risk passing out if they take a lot of damage, but not you. You will function at maximum, right up until the point you drop down dead. The downside is that you'll never know how much damage you've taken. But hey, look at your scores up there – 19 Oops! Points, you're a combat monster!

...OR WITH A TWIST?

You are a barbarian intern. Sure, you have the physique, but the skills and attitude are something you are still working on. 'Should I be foaming at the mouth here? Look, sorry about this, but can we start this again? I think I was supposed to be hitting you with this club.'

Shtick: The Marshall McLuhan Effect (12). When you use this shtick, you can channel the visual homogenisation of cultural experience to – no, I'm kidding, it's just the Schwarzenegger Effect, that's what you've got. It's the same as the other one, over there. I'm sorry, okay?

Shtick Track - To use your shtick, roll the smallest listed die that hasn't been crossed out. Then cross out that die.
